There will be many other charities making claims and only a few will be successful, so the Donkey Sanctuary is relying on you to make a strong case.

You now need to collect evidence to support your case by asking questions.

PRE-VISIT PREPARATION

You will only get the information you need if you ask the right questions.

Start with what, where, when, who/which questions to get the basic factual details.

Leave space for writing in the answers when you know them.

Now try and ask questions beyond the obvious:

Where...

Did you remember to add the question marks?

In order to find out more interesting details ask How and Why questions.
These will help you to find out explanations and reasons.

How...

Why...

To give your research more depth, think of What if questions.

It may be easier to think of these while you are on site. Again, try to go beyond the obvious. Think of interesting questions that others may not have thought of.

What happens if....

Remember that a good investigator always asks more questions than they have on their plan so make sure you have space to add more.

You are now ready to go and ask the questions to find the information you need.

POST-VISIT EVALUATION

Write 3 things you have learned.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1.</li> <li>2.</li> <li>3.</li> </ol>
