Contextual Summary

This resource can be used in the classroom prior to the visit or post-visit. It is a reading comprehension task that engages students with their visit to the Isle of Wight Donkey Sanctuary. The resource tasks enable them to practise their reading, writing and spelling skills.

Students are asked to read two short descriptions of specific donkeys. They then answer a set of questions focusing on spelling, meaning and then vocabulary.

The tasks are designed to appeal to students in upper key stage 2.

It is anticipated that students will have an enriched experience as they will be reflecting on their school visit activities in a creative way, and this will reinforce how written language can be a valuable expressive and informative tool.

Ability Levels

There are two variants of this resource with tasks for low ability pupils in upper key stage 2. There is a choice of worksheets, one giving extra support for lower ability, and there are suggested extension ideas. Teachers can support students in their undertaking of the tasks as necessary for ability. Resources for other abilities in upper key stage 2 are also available.

Key skills practised in this unit:

- ✓ Spelling using phonic knowledge and skills
- ✓ Reading for Meaning
- ✓ Language choices and vocabulary.

Relationship to Curriculum

The above skills are required to be taught and practised as per the National Curriculum for upper key stage 2 English.

Reading: word reading and comprehension; applying phonic knowledge and skills as the route to decode words; discussing word meanings, linking new meanings to those already known; developing pleasure in reading and motivation to read as the texts link closely to the visit.

Writing: learning and identifying phonemes and selecting appropriate letter patterns to spell words; creative writing from a stimulus.

Teacher answers to the cloze passage

Snowy came to the Sanctuary as a small foal, on the same day as his donkey friend Brandy. He was also in need of special care and attention, being very young and still in need of mother's milk. He has since grown into a fine, snowy white donkey with a kind, gentle character and is a firm favourite with the visitors to the farm.

Note that other vocabulary can be accepted and its suitability discussed.
