Jumbled-up Story!

Can you cut out and rearrange the parts of the story until it makes sense?

A

Balaam again tried to ride the donkey to the top of the mountain and again the angel stood in the path.

B

God spoke to Balaam and told him not to

C

God then revealed himself to Balaam

D

The donkey squeezed past the angel and

E

Balak asked a fortune teller called Balaam to put a curse on the Israelites, so he could beat them in battle and take their land.

F

Balak was very angry with Balaam and would have hit him, but Balaam had followed God and was safe.

G

Balak was king of the Moabites. The Israelites lived near and were his enemies.

H

Finally Balaam got to the top of the mountain and gave the Israelites God's blessing and protection.

I

Balaam got on his donkey to ride her to the top of a mountain, where he would be able to see the Israelites' tents.

J

Balaam replied to the donkey it was because she did not obey him.

K

Only the donkey saw the angel and she ran into a field. Balaam beat the donkey for not doing what she was told.

L

This time the path was narrow so the donkey just sat down and would not move, even when it was beaten.

M

As Balaam rode his donkey, God sent an angel to stand in the road.

N

God gave the donkey the power of speech to ask why Balaam beat her.

O

Balaam tried to ride his donkey to the top of the hill a third time and again God sent an angel.
