Instead of doing
what God told him, Jonah took a boat to Tarshish.

When the boat set off it was a lovely day but God was angry with Jonah and sent a terrible storm.

The sailors were afraid and asked Jonah to help them but he realised the storm was God's anger.

Jonah told the
sailors to throw him
overboard and the storm would stop.

Just after the sailors threw Jonah in the sea a big fish came along and swallowed
him.

The fish carried Jonah to Nineveh and so in the end he did warn
the people to be good.

The people of Nineveh
had stopped living by God's laws and were
