which one really appeals to your creative genius!

- ✓ Remember: you will need to be able to include detail so which one sparks your imagination?

CHOOSE ONE TASK

- » On March 30th 2015, the Red Eagle and the Red Jet joined the Cowes RNLI lifeboat to rescue the crew of a tug 'Asterisk' which capsized at Fawley Marine Terminal in Southampton Water. Research this story and then write your own newspaper report about this extraordinary event!
- » Write a one-page advertisement for Red Funnel ferries, detailing their services.
- » Read a range of sea-inspired poems and use your Red Funnel trip to write in the style of a poet you like.
- » Imagine that the vessel on which you were travelling has its own thoughts and feelings. Write a diary entry from the perspective of the ship. What might it say about its vast array of passengers?
- » Write a one-hundred-word story which has been inspired by your journey across the sea. Every word counts!
- » The alarm screams out its warning and the ship's engines shut down. Describe the scene which follows...
